

INDIA QUARTERLY

A JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Vol. LVII, No. 1

January-March 2001

	Page No.
Security Imperatives for India in the Emerging Geopolitical Environment By Prof. Harvir Sharma	1
The Ethnic Crisis in Bhutan: Its Implications By Dr. Rajesh S. Kharat	39
Intensifying Globalisation to make it Socially Acceptable By Hartmut Elsenhans	51
Poverty Alleviation and Human Rights: Implications of Globalisation By Sekhar Ghosh	75
India and Japan - Migration in Pre-Historic Times - Cultural and Spiritual Interaction through the Ages and its Role in India's Struggle for Freedom By Dr. P. N. Chopra	89
India-ASEAN: Emerging Scenario in Economic Interaction By Dr. Sanjay Ambatkar	99
India's Foreign Trade - An Overview By Dr. M. Talha	121
Concentric Circles in British Foreign Policy: The EU & US Dimensions By Dr. Nimmi Kurian	135
Globalisation and Nation State: South Asian Perspective By Dr. K. L. Chawla	147
Chinese Foreign Policy Directions in regard to Russia By Rai Singh	161
India - The Need for a Post Cold War Foreign Policy and the Importance of the E.U. By Ambassador V. K. Grover	171
Eastward Enlargement of the European Union - East European Perceptions and perspectives By Rajendra K. Jain	177
BOOK REVIEW
Rise of Terrorism and Secessionism in Eurasia By V. D. Chopra	199
Kashmir & Sindh By Suranjan Das	207